CORNELIO SELECCIÓN Crianza

Tempranillo

Our own vineyards. In the foothills of the Sierra Cantabria from vineyards with more than 30 years old in goblet training, located in Rioja Alta. This wine is made from the native grape, Tempranillo, and makes use more than eight generations of experience. Sustainable farming and manual harvest.

After 12 months in American and French oak barrels, it is aged in the bottle and released to the market in its third year.

15 - 16 °C

14 % Vol.

Great depth of colour with its cherry-red tone and shades of brick red.

Red berries and traces of vanilla and coconut with great character.

Full-bodied, velvety and sweet palate with a long finish.

Game, red meats, blue fish, legume stews.
